

Center for Military Readiness

Promoting high standards and sound priorities for our military men and women.

For Immediate Release

October 18, 2010

Contact: Elaine Donnelly (734) 464-9430
Tommy Sears (202) 347-5333

No Reason to Bow to the “Supreme Judicial Commander of the U.S. Military”

TO: David Watts

In September U.S. District Court Judge Virginia Phillips presided over a legal challenge to the 1993 law stating that homosexuals are ineligible for military service, which is usually mislabeled “Don’t Ask, Don’t Tell.” Having heard the case, brought by the gay activist group Log Cabin “Republicans” (LCR), on October 12 Judge Phillips issued an injunction ordering an immediate worldwide halt to enforcement of the law.

On October 14 the Department of Justice filed an appeal for a stay of the injunction. Earlier this evening Reuters reported that Judge Phillips was prepared to deny the appeal even before she heard arguments today. In anticipation of the ruling, Center for Military Readiness President Elaine Donnelly posted this article on the Breitbart website Big Peace.

No Reason to Bow to the “Supreme Judicial Commander of the U.S. Military”

More information on this subject is provided in several sections of the website of the Center for Military Readiness, www.cmrlink.org, and the Military Culture Coalition, www.militaryculturecoalition.com.

To schedule an interview on this subject, call Elaine Donnelly at 734/464-9430 or CMR Executive Director Tommy Sears at 202/347-5333.

The Center for Military Readiness is an independent public policy organization that specializes in military/social issues. To unsubscribe, click here